WHY GO INTERNATIONAL?

There are plenty of reasons to go abroad during your degree

• Improve your employability
• Improve your grades
• Grow in confidence
• Make new friends
IMPROVE YOUR EMPLOYABILITY

RESEARCH BY THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION FOUND THAT ERASMUS ALUMNI ARE:

- Half as likely to be long-term unemployed
- Significantly more likely to hold managerial positions 10 years after graduation
- Likely to start their own company, with more entrepreneurs than the average for the total graduate population.

Students who go abroad are more likely to do better at every key indicator in higher education, from grade attainment to employment.

UUKi’s 2017 Gone international report found that:

“There are very few indicators of achievement quite as reliable.”
GROW IN CONFIDENCE

SPENDING TIME ABROAD BUILDS CONFIDENCE, AS WELL AS A HOST OF OTHER ATTRIBUTES:

Intercultural awareness
Language skills
Tolerance
Self awareness
Sociability
Problem solving
Decisiveness
Adaptability
Curiosity

“I CAME BACK WITH A LITTLE MORE CONFIDENCE IN MY STEP”

Jackie Yip, year abroad, Finland

MEET PEOPLE FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Students who go abroad build new international long-term social, academic and professional networks.

This means that you will always have a network of friends across the globe who you can continue to visit and learn from.

It can also increase your global job prospects further down the line.
NO SECOND LANGUAGE? NO PROBLEM!

You can study, work or volunteer abroad in English in countries across the world. Here are some destinations highlighted by QS for English speakers:

...and why not try to pick up some of the language while you're there?
