International Higher Education Forum 2026

Date: 6-7 May 2026

Location: London, Senate House, University of London

Number of delegates: approx. 300

International Higher Education Forum (IHEF) 2026 convenes on 6-7 May at Senate House, University of London, uniting over 300 higher education leaders, policymakers, and practitioners for two days of insight, debate, and networking.

Our 2026 programme features inspiring keynotes, high-level plenaries, and four breakout tracks, each underpinned by data-driven discussions, covering topics such as transnational education, global mobility, research and innovation, student recruitment, and more. These sessions are designed to unpack the latest trends shaping international higher education and inform the UK's global strategy.

Beyond the sessions, IHEF 2026 offers prime opportunities to connect with peers across the sector. Day one culminates in a networking reception in the historic Senate Hall—perfect for reflecting on the day's debates, sparking new ideas, and forging collaborations in an informal setting.

Testimonials from the previous edition:

The IHEF Conference is a must-attend if you want to stay up to date with the latest in international education policy and engage with colleagues who can help stretch your thinking. You come away with fresh ideas and practical actions to take forward.

#IHEF2025 was an inspiring convergence of innovation, ideas and impactful dialogue, an unforgettable experience!

#IHEF2025 was a truly energising and thought-provoking gathering of international higher education professionals. The event struck a strong balance between strategic insight and practical action, with a strong alignment on policy setting and a clear focus on collaboration, sustainability, and innovation. It was an excellent platform to exchange ideas, build partnerships, and reflect on the evolving role of the UK in global higher education. A fantastic experience from start to finish!
